

What are dinosaurs?

Dinosaurs are a group of reptiles that lived on the earth for over 160 million years. But they died out about 65 million years ago.

We know about dinosaurs today, because scientists have found and studied their preserved remains, which are called fossils.

How were baby dinosaurs born?

What did dinosaurs eat?

Could dinosaurs fly?

Where does the word "dinosaur" come from?