

A Trip to Calgary

A. Read the story. Then put a line through the wrong word in each sentence and write the correct word above it.

Sabrina had her face pressed to the window of the family car. She was staring at a large airplane as it was taking off. Soon Sabrina would be flying through the sky. She was going to Calgary to visit her cousin Josie.

It was time to board the plane. Sabrina hugged her father and mother and said goodbye. A flight attendant helped Sabrina find her seat. As she looked out of the window, Sabrina saw that the plane was leaving the ground. She was flying! Soon she would be in Calgary with Josie.

1. Sabrina was staring at a small plane.
2. Sabrina would be jumping through the sky.
3. A flight attendant helped Sabrina find her backpack.
4. The plane was leaving the sky.

B. Give short answers to the questions.

1. How did Sabrina get to the airport?

2. Where was she going?

3. Who am I going to visit?

4. Who helped me find my seat?

C. Rewrite each sentence using capital letters for the proper nouns.

1. sabrina left toronto on an airplane.

2. She landed in calgary, alberta at 11:00 a.m.

3. Her cousin josie met her at the airport.

4. I flew to halifax with my friend peter.

D. Read the clues and complete the crossword puzzle with words from the story.

Across

- A. your aunt's son or daughter
- B. It travels in the sky.
- C. moving in the air
- D. get on
- E. We stand on it.

Down

- 1. looking
- 2. He or she helps you on the plane.
- 3. where you sit

E. Read the postcard that Sabrina sent to her parents. Then write a postcard to a friend about a place you visited and what you did there.

Dear Mom and Dad,

I'm having a great time in Calgary. Yesterday, Josie and I went horseback riding. My horse's name was Smokey. Today we will go shopping. See you soon.

Love,
Sabrina

To:

Mr. and Mrs. Lake
99 Church Street,
Toronto, Ontario
L4S 4M2

To:
