

Storybook Gardens, located in Springbank Park in London, Ontario, is a unique park that has enchanted many.

There, you will be able to meet some famous storybook and nursery rhyme characters, including Humpty Dumpty and the Frog Prince, at Storybook Valley,

Storybook Gardens

as you stroll leisurely through the different storybook scenes. You can pose for pictures with the Three Men in a Tub and the Windmill as backdrops and relive these wonderful moments whenever you like. You can even explore Pirates' Island and play pirates with your friends on the "sunken" pirate ship. If you want to cool off from the summer heat, you can splash around at Slippery's Great Escape.

Don't miss the amazing and educational wildlife show at Timbavati Wildlife Park. You may get the chance to participate on stage with the animal stars, including a porcupine, tiger cubs, and a giant 50-year-old tortoise! The incredible experience of coming face to face with the giraffes on a high platform and having these large animals gently nibble the treats in your hands would be beyond words.

Be a part of the storybook fantasy this summer at Storybook Gardens!

