

- reading comprehension

Read the journal entries.

Frank's Vacation Journal

July 26

cloudy

Today we travelled for five hours. We saw one handsome moose, two shy deer, and a chubby raccoon that scooted across the road. Too bad we weren't able to take pictures of them. It was already night when we reached the resort. We had seafood for dinner. It was yummy!

July 27

hot and sunny

We spent all day at the waterslides. Nancy and I met two new friends, Sally and Tommy, at the park. Mom and Dad bought triple fudge ice cream sundaes for us all at sunset. We had great fun!

July 28

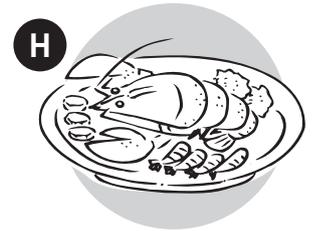

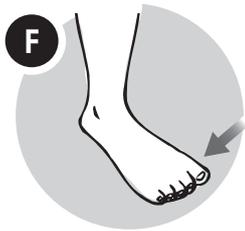

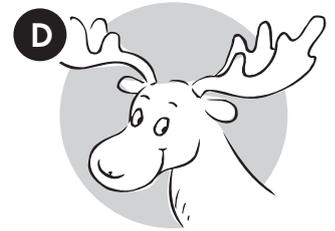

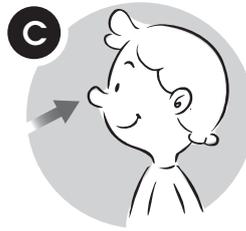

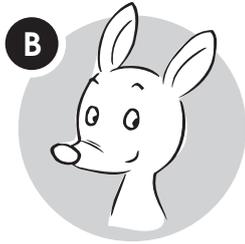

sunny

Today we went hiking on a rugged mountain trail. At the end of the day, I had two sore feet, a blister on my toe, and a sunburn on my nose.

A. Answer the questions.

1. How long was Frank's vacation? _____
2. On which day of the vacation did Frank make new friends? _____

B. Look at the pictures. Put them in the correct places in the paragraph. Write the letters.

Frank went on a vacation with his parents and his sister, Nancy. On their way to the resort, they saw a _____ and two _____. They also saw a _____ that scooted across the road. That night, they had yummy _____ for dinner. The next day, they played on the _____ at the park. Frank and Nancy met two new friends. They enjoyed _____ at sunset. On the last day of the vacation, they went hiking. Frank got a sunburn on his _____ and a blister on his _____.

- reading comprehension

Read the journal entries.

Frank's Vacation Journal

July 26

cloudy

Today we travelled for five hours. We saw one handsome moose, two shy deer, and a chubby raccoon that scooted across the road. Too bad we weren't able to take pictures of them. It was already night when we reached the resort. We had seafood for dinner. It was yummy!

July 27

hot and sunny

We spent all day at the waterslides. Nancy and I met two new friends, Sally and Tommy, at the park. Mom and Dad bought triple fudge ice cream sundaes for us all at sunset. We had great fun!

July 28

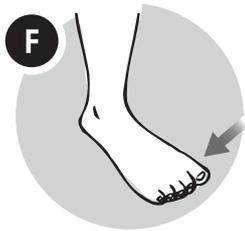

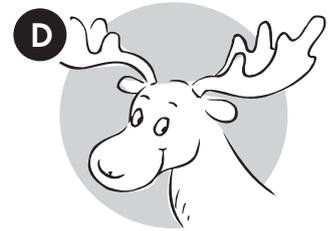

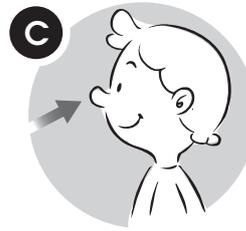

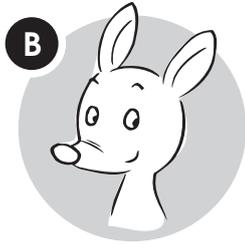

sunny

Today we went hiking on a rugged mountain trail. At the end of the day, I had two sore feet, a blister on my toe, and a sunburn on my nose.

A. Answer the questions.

1. How long was Frank's vacation? three days
2. On which day of the vacation did Frank make new friends? July 27 / the second day

B. Look at the pictures. Put them in the correct places in the paragraph. Write the letters.

Frank went on a vacation with his parents and his sister, Nancy. On their way to the resort, they saw a D and two B . They also saw a G that scooted across the road. That night, they had yummy H for dinner. The next day, they played on the E at the park. Frank and Nancy met two new friends. They enjoyed A at sunset. On the last day of the vacation, they went hiking. Frank got a sunburn on his C and a blister on his F .