

- adverbs

A. Check the correct answers.

1. An adverb describes a _____ .

- A subject
- B noun
- C verb

2. Many adverbs end in _____ .

- A "ed"
- B "ly"
- C "ful"

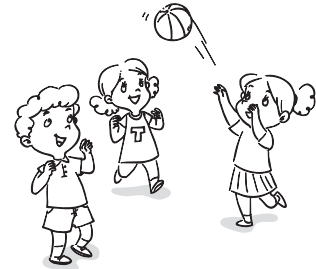

B. Look at each picture. Circle the adverb that describes the action.

1.

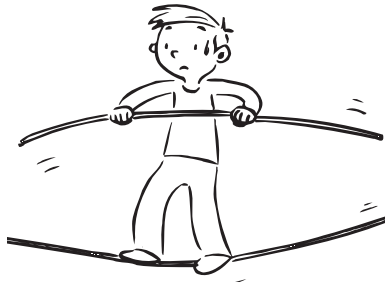

moves slowly / quickly

2.

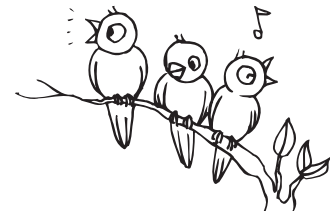

play softly / happily

3.

walks carefully / strongly

4.

sing quietly / sweetly

C. Fill in the blanks with the correct adverbs.

gracefully noisily heavily nervously weakly patiently

1. It suddenly rained _____ , and everyone on the street ran for shelter.
2. The performers at the competition were waiting _____ for their turn to go on stage.
3. There is a blue light blinking _____ in the dim bedroom.
4. We watched with amazement as the figure skaters glided _____ around the rink.
5. A sports car zoomed _____ by and woke Baby Ginny up.
6. The teacher is explaining _____ to her students how they can solve the math problem.

Fill in the blanks with the correct adverbs.

hard / hardly

1. My sister is studying _____ for the test.
2. There is _____ any milk left in the fridge.

- adverbs

A. Check the correct answers.

1. An adverb describes a _____ .

A subject

B noun

C verb

2. Many adverbs end in _____ .

A "ed"

B "ly"

C "ful"

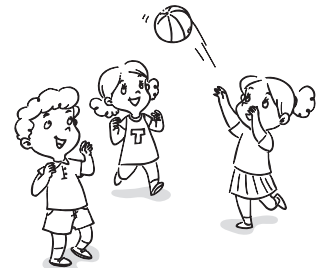

B. Look at each picture. Circle the adverb that describes the action.

1.

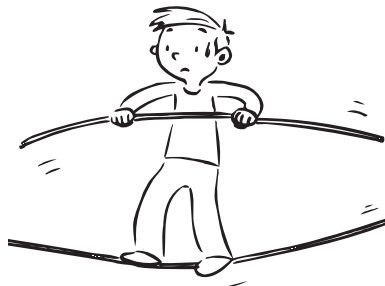

moves slowly / quickly

2.

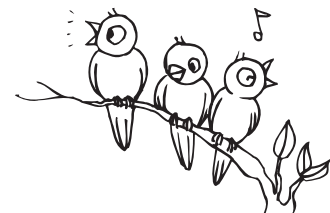

play softly / happily

3.

walks carefully / strongly

4.

sing quietly / sweetly

C. Fill in the blanks with the correct adverbs.

gracefully noisily heavily nervously weakly patiently

1. It suddenly rained heavily, and everyone on the street ran for shelter.
2. The performers at the competition were waiting nervously for their turn to go on stage.
3. There is a blue light blinking weakly in the dim bedroom.
4. We watched with amazement as the figure skaters glided gracefully around the rink.
5. A sports car zoomed noisily by and woke Baby Ginny up.
6. The teacher is explaining patiently to her students how they can solve the math problem.

Fill in the blanks with the correct adverbs.

hard / hardly

1. My sister is studying hard for the test.
2. There is hardly any milk left in the fridge.