

• adverbs

A. Check the correct answers.

1. An adverb describes a ____ .

- A noun
- B pronoun
- C verb

2. Most adverbs are formed by adding “ly” to ____ .

- A a noun
- B a verb
- C an adjective

B. Circle the adverbs in the sentences.

1. Walk carefully or you’ll slip and fall.
2. Something is creeping stealthily in the bushes.
3. Hopefully, the weather will be fine tomorrow.
4. It is a cowardly act to give up immediately.
5. The sun shines brightly early in the mornings.
6. You have to practise hard if you want to excel in figure skating.
7. Tim turned the television off reluctantly and returned to his room.
8. The lovely baby is smiling sweetly at her mom and dad.
9. Christine sang so well that all of the judges and everyone in the audience were impressed.

C. Change the adjectives to adverbs and fill in the blanks.

careful final slow good
 even happy patient

Jane and Ken are making Rice Krispies treats. They melt butter, marshmallows, and peanut butter _____ over low heat in a large pan. Then they remove the pan from heat and stir in Rice Krispies. When everything is mixed _____, they spread the mixture into a large, buttered, flat pan _____. Then they pat the mixture down _____ with their buttered hands. They wait _____ for it to cool and then cut it into squares. _____, they enjoy the yummy treats they have made together _____.

Check the sentences with the proper adverbs.

- (A) The athlete leapt high in the air.
- (B) The eagle soared highly into the sky.
- (C) The committee thought highly of Mr. Bennett.

• adverbs

A. Check the correct answers.

1. An adverb describes a ____ .

- A noun
- B pronoun
- C verb

2. Most adverbs are formed by adding “ly” to ____ .

- A a noun
- B a verb
- C an adjective

B. Circle the adverbs in the sentences.

1. Walk carefully or you’ll slip and fall.
2. Something is creeping stealthily in the bushes.
3. Hopefully the weather will be fine tomorrow.
4. It is a cowardly act to give up immediately.
5. The sun shines brightly early in the mornings.
6. You have to practise hard if you want to excel in figure skating.
7. Tim turned the television off reluctantly and returned to his room.
8. The lovely baby is smiling sweetly at her mom and dad.
9. Christine sang so well that all of the judges and everyone in the audience were impressed.

C. Change the adjectives to adverbs and fill in the blanks.

careful final slow good
even happy patient

Jane and Ken are making Rice Krispies treats. They melt butter, marshmallows, and peanut butter slowly over low heat in a large pan. Then they remove the pan from heat and stir in Rice Krispies. When everything is mixed well, they spread the mixture into a large, buttered, flat pan evenly. Then they pat the mixture down carefully with their buttered hands. They wait patiently for it to cool and then cut it into squares. Finally, they enjoy the yummy treats they have made together happily.

Check the sentences with the proper adverbs.

- The athlete leapt high in the air.
- The eagle soared highly into the sky.
- The committee thought highly of Mr. Bennett.