

- comparative and superlative adjectives and adverbs

A. Check the correct answers.

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. For most adjectives with one syllable, “er” is added to the end of the word to form ____ . <input type="radio"/> A the base form <input type="radio"/> B the comparative form <input type="radio"/> C the superlative form | 2. For most adverbs with two or more syllables, “most” is added before the word to form ____ . <input type="radio"/> A the base form <input type="radio"/> B the comparative form <input type="radio"/> C the superlative form |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

B. Fill in the blanks with the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives and adverbs given.

- This is (scary) _____ story I have ever read.
- Tina is (active) _____ participant in her group.
- Rachel works (hard) _____ among all of the students in her class.
- The fruit cake is (expensive) _____ than the chocolate cake.
- Adrian raised his hand (quickly) _____ and got the chance to answer the question.
- Gary coloured the picture (carefully) _____ than Jessica did.
- This painting is (good) _____ than the one over there.

C. Rewrite the sentences using the correct comparatives or superlatives.

1.

I run more fastly than you do.

2. This is more lovely hat I've ever had.

3. Nachos are a gooder snack than chips.

4. The bird has the most sweet voice in the world.

5. I arrived at school more early than my friends did.

6. Of the three girls, Katie visits her grandparents more frequently.

Check the correct sentence.

- ☐ A This question is much hard than the previous one.
- ☐ B This question is much harder than the previous one.
- ☐ C This question is much more hard than the previous one.

- comparative and superlative adjectives and adverbs

A. Check the correct answers.

1. For most adjectives with one syllable, “er” is added to the end of the word to form ____ .

- ☐ A the base form
- ☒ B the comparative form
- ☐ C the superlative form

2. For most adverbs with two or more syllables, “most” is added before the word to form ____ .

- ☐ A the base form
- ☐ B the comparative form
- ☒ C the superlative form

B. Fill in the blanks with the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives and adverbs given.

- This is (scary) the scariest story I have ever read.
- Tina is (active) the most active participant in her group.
- Rachel works (hard) the hardest among all of the students in her class.
- The fruit cake is (expensive) more expensive than the chocolate cake.
- Adrian raised his hand (quickly) the most quickly and got the chance to answer the question.
- Gary coloured the picture (carefully) more carefully than Jessica did.
- This painting is (good) better than the one over there.

C. Rewrite the sentences using the correct comparatives or superlatives.

1.

I run more fastly than you do.

I run faster than you do.

2. This is more lovely hat I've ever had.

This is the most lovely hat I've ever had.

3. Nachos are a gooder snack than chips.

Nachos are a better snack than chips.

4. The bird has the most sweet voice in the world.

The bird has the sweetest voice in the world.

5. I arrived at school more early than my friends did.

I arrived at school earlier than my friends did.

6. Of the three girls, Katie visits her grandparents more frequently.

Of the three girls, Katie visits her grandparents the most frequently.

Check the correct sentence.

- ☐ A This question is much hard than the previous one.
- ☒ B This question is much harder than the previous one.
- ☐ C This question is much more hard than the previous one.