

- subject, object, and indefinite pronouns

A. Check the correct answers.

1. Subject and object pronouns replace _____ .

- A indefinite pronouns
- B nouns
- C adjectives

2. _____ are examples of indefinite pronouns.

- A "Anyone", "everyone", and "something"
- B "His", "mine", and "theirs"
- C "It", "they", and "them"

B. Circle the indefinite pronouns.

Everyone's Favourite
Outlet Superstore
Our prices and selection cannot be beaten.

This is something of which we are very proud. And to prove it, EVERYTHING IN THE SHOWROOM IS HALF PRICE TODAY. That's right! Anything you want, we have, and we have priced it to sell. Someone special to buy for? No problem! We guarantee that nobody will be disappointed. No one will leave the store empty-handed. We challenge anyone to prove us wrong. So, come in, come in, today only, and we will treat you right.

C. Cross out the incorrect pronoun and write the correct one on the line. Then identify the type of each pronoun and write the letter in the box.

Subject Pronoun – S Object Pronoun – O Indefinite Pronoun – I

1. Emma and me joined them in the soccer game they were playing by my house. _____
2. There is nothing for everyone at the World's Circus! _____
3. I was happy that them changed their minds. _____
4. I could tell Grandma was happy to see Mom and I because she quietly hummed a tune. _____
5. Someone on Earth should have access to clean water. _____

D. Fill in the blanks with the correct pronouns.

Subject

1. The students wanted to play outside, but _____ did not know what to do with all the snow in the yard.
2. The dog tried and tried, but _____ could not catch its tail.

Object

3. The bicycle was badly broken, but Mika fixed _____ easily.
4. My cousin asked _____ a question, but I had no answer.

Indefinite

5. _____ you can say will make me change my mind because I am not interested.
6. Don't worry, Joe. _____ is bound to find your ferret.

- subject, object, and indefinite pronouns

A. Check the correct answers.

1. Subject and object pronouns replace _____ .

- A indefinite pronouns
- B nouns
- C adjectives

2. _____ are examples of indefinite pronouns.

- A "Anyone", "everyone", and "something"
- B "His", "mine", and "theirs"
- C "It", "they", and "them"

B. Circle the indefinite pronouns.

This is something of which we are very proud. And to prove it, EVERYTHING IN THE SHOWROOM IS HALF PRICE TODAY. That's right! Anything you want, we have, and we have priced it to sell. Someone special to buy for? No problem! We guarantee that nobody will be disappointed. No one will leave the store empty-handed. We challenge anyone to prove us wrong. So, come in, come in, today only, and we will treat you right.

C. Cross out the incorrect pronoun and write the correct one on the line. Then identify the type of each pronoun and write the letter in the box.

Subject Pronoun – S Object Pronoun – O Indefinite Pronoun – I

- | | | | |
|----|---|-----------|---|
| 1. | Emma and me joined them in the soccer game they were playing by my house. | I | S |
| 2. | There is nothing for everyone at the World's Circus! | something | I |
| 3. | I was happy that them changed their minds. | they | S |
| 4. | I could tell Grandma was happy to see Mom and I because she quietly hummed a tune. | me | O |
| 5. | Someone on Earth should have access to clean water. | Everyone | I |

D. Fill in the blanks with the correct pronouns.

Subject

1. The students wanted to play outside, but they did not know what to do with all the snow in the yard.

2. The dog tried and tried, but it could not catch its tail.

Object

3. The bicycle was badly broken, but Mika fixed it easily.

4. My cousin asked me a question, but I had no answer.

Indefinite

5. Nothing you can say will make me change my mind because I am not interested.

6. Don't worry, Joe. Someone is bound to find your ferret.