

- mood

A. Check the correct answers.

1. The _____ is used to make a command or request.

- A indicative mood
- B imperative mood
- C subjunctive mood

2. In the subjunctive mood, _____ is used in indicating wishes.

- A "is"
- B "were"
- C "was" or "were"

B. Determine the mood of each sentence. Write "IN" for indicative, "IM" for imperative, and "SUB" for subjunctive.

1. How I wish I could join the baseball game tomorrow.

- 2. Please play nicely with your brother, Ralph. _____
- 3. Are we going to the cottage this weekend, Mom? _____
- 4. We have a motor boat and a canoe at our cottage. _____
- 5. Do not eat those cookies until you have finished dinner. _____
- 6. I wish I were a world-famous mathematician. _____
- 7. Please give me until Friday to decide. _____
- 8. If I were a bird, I would fly to the cottage right away. _____
- 9. I suggest that we weed the garden together. _____

C. Circle the word that is incorrect. Write the word that correctly reflects the subjunctive mood on the line.

1. If Mateo is with us, we would all feel much safer. _____
2. His teacher requested that he took the test again. _____
3. If I am you, I would clean before my parents came home. _____
4. I looked at him as though he was a knight in shining armour. _____
5. Her mom suggested that she thought about what she had done. _____

D. Rewrite each scenario as a single sentence in the subjunctive mood.

1. Saul wanted to drive a car, but he was not old enough.

2. "Could you buy some milk on your way home?" Jenny's mother requested of her.

Identify the mood of the sentence below. Circle the correct answer.

Could you please stop that?

indicative / imperative / subjunctive

- mood

A. Check the correct answers.

1. The _____ is used to make a command or request.

- A indicative mood
- B imperative mood
- C subjunctive mood

2. In the subjunctive mood, _____ is used in indicating wishes.

- A "is"
- B "were"
- C "was" or "were"

B. Determine the mood of each sentence. Write "IN" for indicative, "IM" for imperative, and "SUB" for subjunctive.

1.

How I wish I could join the baseball game tomorrow.

 SUB

2. Please play nicely with your brother, Ralph.

 IM

3. Are we going to the cottage this weekend, Mom?

 IN

4. We have a motor boat and a canoe at our cottage.

 IN

5. Do not eat those cookies until you have finished dinner.

 IM

6. I wish I were a world-famous mathematician.

 SUB

7. Please give me until Friday to decide.

 IM

8. If I were a bird, I would fly to the cottage right away.

 SUB

9. I suggest that we weed the garden together.

 SUB

C. Circle the word that is incorrect. Write the word that correctly reflects the subjunctive mood on the line.

1. If Mateo is with us, we would all feel much safer. were
2. His teacher requested that he took the test again. take
3. If I am you, I would clean before my parents came home. were
4. I looked at him as though he was a knight in shining armour. were
5. Her mom suggested that she thought about what she had done. think

D. Rewrite each scenario as a single sentence in the subjunctive mood.

1. Saul wanted to drive a car, but he was not old enough.
If Saul were old enough, he would drive a car.
2. "Could you buy some milk on your way home?" Jenny's mother requested of her.
Jenny's mother requested that Jenny buy some milk on her way home.

Identify the mood of the sentence below. Circle the correct answer.

Could you please stop that?

indicative / imperative / subjunctive